

2016 Coat of Arms Cabernet Sauvignon

The Real Review

Huon Hooke

89/100

RRP $30 / 2019-2029

Medium to deep red colour with a tinge of purple. The aroma is straightforward, raspberry-ish and bright, and it's frisky and firm on the palate, with some grittiness in the tannins. Fruit drives it. There are slightly chewy tannins to close, and the wine has good length and density. It's well-priced.
