

2017 Solana Tempranillo

The Real Review

Huon Hooke

87/100

RRP $30 / 2019-2028

Deepish red/purple colour, bright and youthful. The bouquet is likewise fresh and young, straightforward and grapy, with a medium-bodied palate firmed up by slightly tough tannins. It's bright and aromatic. There's a hint of greenness in the wine but it is clean well-made and pleasant.
