

2018 G1-10 Chardonnay

The Real Review

Huon Hooke

89/100

RRP $30 / 2019-2026

Smoky, toasty oak and low-level sulfides greet the nose; it's rich and worked, at least to smell. The palate is a different story. It's high-acid and tangy, tense and taut and restrained. You need to like acid. It would go well with fish but is a bit confronting to drink solo.
