

2016 Coat of Arms Cabernet Sauvignon

93 points, Campbell Mattinson

Cabernet Sauvignon from the Ferguson Valley in south-west Western Australia.

In fine shape. A lovely wine. Fluid, well-fruited, well balanced and persistent. Structure to match. Bay leaves, blackcurrant, a burst of bright red berries and an infusion of smoky vanillin oak. Briary tannin ripples through but the overall effect is as seamless as it is satisfying.
